If this be the case, I, who have been disabled in the service of the country, and who have been given a pension, should be given the same consideration. I respectfully ask your support on the ground of merit alone.

MRS. M. E. LEASE.

Mr. A. L. Thomas returned yesterday morning from a business trip to St. Louis. He complained last evening of badness being dull, as he had made sales amounting to only $30.00. He promises to do better when he gets in good shape.

Hon. Wm. Higgins, who swung in from the west yesterday and spent the day in the city, says with a hundred towns and five hundred thousand people in Northwest Kansas all talking about Wichita and looking to her as the future great, he can't see that there is much left for the Eagle to do but to daily record the city's growth.

A prominent citizen was being driven in a hack from the depot to his home about two weeks ago, and in some way his fine umbrella disappeared very mysteriously. Every effort was made to find the missing property, but in vain, until yesterday a friend of the owner, picked it from a hedge fence bordering the railway along which the hack passed the evening of the disappearance. How came it there?

GRAND OPENING.

S. H. Nelson announces in this morning's issue a grand opening with a partial list of bargains which he is offering. The list speaks for itself. Don't miss the opportunity now that it is offered.

DEDICATION.

The church of the Evangelical association at Dorby, will be dedicated D. V. Nov. 7th, at 10 a. m. Services beginning Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. and Saturday at 2 and 7:30 p. m. Rev. H. Mattill of Holton, Kansas, will officiate. Come and welcome.

DISTRICT COURT.

W. H. H. Oatley vs. Wichita &amp; Western railroad consumed most of the time yesterday. This is a suit for $6,330 damages to trees, etc., caused by fire kindled with sparks from an engine. ## THE CRACKER FACTORY.

Father Gleason an eloquent divine will deliver the sermon. All the Catholic societies will join in a procession from the school house to the church.

The bishop will lay the corner stone of All Saint's Academy on Monday and Father Gleason will deliver an oration.

LEAVENWORTH MEN.

Judge Hacker, of Leavenworth, called yesterday morning in company with M. R. Meier, who had been sailing to Judge H. and a number of other gentlemen from Leavenworth large blocks of farming land and suburban property. Judge Hacker got the Watkins place and a piece of the Cook place and a number of lots in Maple Grove addition.

He says—and everybody says who ever came to the town—that Wichita has completely captured him and that he shall make this his home at an early day. Judge H. and other gentlemen have been also making very large investments in and about this city. In fact we should be surprised to see Len Smith, Alex. Caldwell and Dan Anthony down any day dropping a few dollars against a rainy day, in the coming metropolis which Kansas City and Omaha once vainly dreamed of being—the trade center of the new west.

POLICE COURT.

John Doe, Henry Doe and John Welsh, were up before his honor charged with being drunk; the two Does paid $5 each and Officer Billy turned over $4 as the fine for Welsh.

Welsh was also charged with carrying concealed weapons and pleaded not guilty. The weapons, however, had been found upon his person and he was sent to the calaboose. A gambler's outfit was found among his effects, and he acknowledged that to be his occupation.

John Smith, Anna Strong, George Jones and Rachel Rely, were fined $10 each for lewdness. This party, Policeman Hambrow had captured at the River View hotel on the west side Thursday night. The correct names of the party were not given, but restrained for reasons peculiarly their own.

The whole amount collected so far this month in the court is $2,033.93.

FOUND DEAD.

The circumstances under which Mr. S. B. Caldwell, who some months ago worked in the register of deeds office, left this city, will doubtless be remembered by the readers of the EAGLE. The ticket purchased by some of those interested in him called for Dodge City. He went there and secured a situation in the register's office.

Yesterday Mr. L. Willis, of Valley Center, who has just returned from a visit of some weeks to Dodge City, was in this city, and said that last Monday morning a man was found dead in this city. He gave a complete description of him and said he had gone there some time ago from this city, and had killed the same position here that Mr. Caldwell had. His description was one that fitted him in every particular.

The informant stated that the body was found lying by a fence and showed no signs of violence and the coroner's jury had decided that his death was caused by apoplexy.

It seems that he had been drinking very hard all last week, which is thought to have been the cause of his death.

He came to this city from Carlisle, Pa.

WICHITA'S UNANIMITY.

It is an every day observation, especially of non-resident visitors that the wonderful growth of Wichita can be attributed largely to the unanimity of her people. The idea is fallacious. Wichita has kickers to-day, and has always had them. Her apparent unanimity came from the fact that there has always been a dominating element who have controlled affairs in spite of kickers, and controlled them in the interest of the city, and generally without expense to the city, in a quiet way and without reference to the noise of critics, the youth of the demagogue, or the sneer of the street brawler and boaster.

In the main, we have always had level-headed conditions and unprejudiced mayors, who have given us liberal and broad guttered administrations; but flat-headed vapors and narrow-minded and selfish grovelers have ever followed upon their heels.

In the main, the faith of our people in Wichita's present and future is well up to the standard which this paper has been holding up for years, and there is a unanimity of faith, yet it is an undeniable fact that there are in our midst a few fellows who could leave our town permanently for the town's good.

No, Wichita has had her winners and grumblers whose voices were as depressing in the past as the crows of a raven. But their efforts of late have been drowned by the rush, the noise, the life and confusion of the business and onward march of a city that was born great, whose birth-mark was Destiny's own insignia. Wichita's prosperity therefore has not been due so much to a lack of kickers as to the fortunate possession of a class who, in dominating her destinies, have ignored the kickers.

From President Gurnea's circular we see that the meetings of the Young Men's Christian Association at Wichita are the largest in the state, with a $13,000 building fund, which is the largest reported and the third in active membership in the state.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

Thursday evening at the tent Elder G. H. Rogers, of Emporia, spoke to a good audience upon the theme of the Signs of the Time. He said: We, as a people, hold that the great event and day, for which all events and days were made, will not burst unheralded upon the devoted heads of a slumbering world, but that God will remember his wanted mercy and love in a truly and abundant warning, which will be commensurate with the character of this most solemn and decisive work of God for man. As this will determine the destiny of every human being, ample to warn every conscious intelligence, will precede and announce the doom of the world. This, he held, was clearly set forth in the Saviour's words in Luke 21:34-35: Take heed to yourselves lest at any time your hearts be over-charged with surfeiting and drunkenness, and the cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the earth."

The Saviour's gracious warning will not surely mock the enquiring soul, who watches for the omens of the coming day, with desire to escape the deep laid "snare of the devil." As it is proven by reference to Rom. 13:2 Tim. 2:25 this snare is, as will be seen by the foregoing, the discourse of the evening, if to trace out the events noted in the Scriptures, till the last scene where the redeemed into the presence of their coming redeemer and the absolve of the blood.

Our blessed Bible gleams with gems of truth on this point. Last evening the three great signs given in Matt. 24. Darkening of the sun and moon, and falling of the stars, which the Saviour gave, as the immediate precursors of the great day of the "Sons of Man," were fully explained, and shown to have occurred between 1780 and 1783 A. D. We now note one point more in this line of prophecy in verse 29: "The tribes of the earth mourn," this in Luke 21:25, 26 is shown to include "Distress of nations with perplexity," so patent to every student of the day. "Tidal waves," of which the late disaster at Sabine Pass, Texas, and nearly compassing the earth is a vivid fulfillment; "Men's hearts failing them," graphically descriptive of the condition of the crowns of Europe over the Russo-Russian national conflict and culminating in the hopeless general war of Rev. 6:15, 17, calling "mountains and rocks fall on us and hideous," when the great earthquake of the Saviour's prophecy in Rev. 16:17-21 shall lift every mountain of earth from its base, slip lightly, and every island to sink out of sight, in the seventh and last plagues, closing with the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. These are some of the physical signs. Who can ignore them?

MORAL SIGNS.

Are no less vividly marked. Hearts will be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness. It is to be as it was in the day of Noah." Mat. 24:37-39. So infatuated with the determination to gratify appetite and passion will become that as Paul describes them in Rom. 11:18. Their eyes are darkened and they will not see. In this we see all the race are not involved but only those who would not heed the warning. This is clearly proven in 1st Thess. 5:1-9, where the two classes are clearly shown. Also in 2nd Peter 3:10. It is markedly plain one class are pre-ordinating the Lord's come, another scoffingly say where is any promise of it and remain willfully ignorant, though warned of the approaching event, until the great "Day of the Lord" awakes them in their overthrow.

RELIGIOUS FEATURES.

Are also made prominent as marking the coming day. Joel says "the trumpet will be blown in Zion," when "the day of the Lord is at hand." Or ministers will preach it and the people should tremble. Chapter 21. Amos says this will be based upon the prophecies. Amos, 8:5-7.

Jesus says this feature of the gospel, "the coming Kingdom near," even the last generation are to live to see him come, shall be preached in all the world for a witness to all nations, and then shall the end come. Not a thousand or a hundred years afterwards. In Revelations, 14:6-12, He who was dead and is alive forevermore tells us of this same feature of the gospel, its world wide proclamation, announcing the great day, tells us there will follow a great spirit delusion and moral fall and apostasy among the churches and this will be succeeded by a world wide message warning the world against accepting the Papal change in the law of God, substituting Sunday for the Sabbath, which would develop a people who keep all the commandments of God and faith of Jesus. All these signs are before us. Is the great event near?

PEAK SISTERS.

Those who heard the "Peak Sisters of Abasco" Tuesday evening will be delighted to hear that they will repeat the performance tonight with the addition of several new features of an attractive nature. One of these will be the plantation melodies of Prof. Joe McCoy, a colored gentleman of the true Alabama stripe. For genuine, unalloyed fun the "Peak Sisters" can't be beat, and the most crusty old bachelor will catch himself laughing at "Potatoes they are small," "Say, brothers, won't you come," and other comic renditions. Aside from the much-proving features the entertainment is interspersed with songs of the sweetest kind, and the acting of several of the ladies shows talent of a high order. Those who do not go will miss a treat.

SEES THE IMPROVEMENT OF TEN YEARS.

Judge J. W. English, of Jacksonville, Ill., is visiting his brother, Mr. N. A. English. He was in this city ten years ago and predicted that Wichita would probably amount to a thirty country town. He says that he has been hearing every day since favorable reports of the city. As the months have passed the praises for the city have increased but all the time he has given them a cold reception, thinking that it was a bubble, nothing more.

His visit here has given him an opportunity to see for himself the wonderful growth of the city. He freely admits that he was mistaken and would not have believed that the city was as large as it is under any consideration. He has been driven over many of the most attractive parts of the city and thus given an opportunity to gain an idea of its immensity.

He will probably leave tomorrow on his return trip, feeling that he has unexpectedly tumbled out to a great city in the southwest.

E. E. Keck, of Quincy, Ill., spent a few days in the city visiting his parents and friends. He is very enthusiastic in his praise of the metropolis, and expects soon to return and make it his future home. Before returning to Illinois he did not forget to put some of his money in Wichita's real estate.

THE WRONG MAN.

Mr. Hardacre, the carpenter and contractor, has been missing lumber for some time from the house he has been erecting on the West Side.

He, himself, made several unsuccessful attempts to capture the thief. At last, on Thursday night he employed a man to watch for him in the bushes near a residence under course of construction. The person had been concealed a short time before he saw a man come, carry away a load of lumber, return and take off a second. He followed the thief, but losing the trail came in search of an officer to assist.

The two had scarcely concealed themselves until a man was seen to again enter the house and soon after leave it carrying away an armful of wood. Officer Hambrow called on the man to stop. Instead of doing so, however, he took to flight. Hambrow fired his revolver, and this only appeared to hasten the fugitive's speed. A large bull dog participated in the race and catching hold of the man threw him to the ground; arising he was caught the second time by the dog. Finally extracting himself from the animal he rushed breathless into a neighboring house.

The officer came and was about to take charge of the thoroughly frightened man when he recognized in him Mr. Lukes, the owner of the house being built.

Mr. Lukes had walked out to take a look at his new house and coming to the place shortly after the arrival of the two watchmen, was mistaken for the thief; while he, in turn, thought his pursuers were robbers who were endeavoring to take his life.

CAPTURED.

Tom McNamara yesterday morning did a clever piece of detective work in capturing two characters, that from attending circumstances, must have been very adroit thieves. The officer about 9 o'clock saw a man with a bundle of clothes cross the avenue near the Douglas Avenue houses and go north on Water street. He called upon the man to stop; and when asked where he got the clothes took the officer to a place where he said he saw them concealed under logs.

He was taken to the city prison and gave the name of Frank Edmunds.

Among the stolen property were four pairs of pants from the New York store; two pair of pants and two vests from the Revolution clothing house. The police think they have recovered only a part of the stolen property, and that the remainder may yet be found.

His partner Jim Carter, was arrested in the northern part of the city about 11 o'clock and immediately taken to the county jail, where Edmunds was also removed last evening.

The manner of working employed by these men was, to enter a store, lounge around for a few minutes and adroitly place goods that may be within reach under their left arm, over which was hung a large ulster overcoat that completely concealed the stolen property; pass out, hide it and try the same game on some other store.

ANOTHER.

A colored man who had just arrived in the city was arrested yesterday morning charged with stealing an overcoat from a second hand store on North Main. He was put in the calaboose, but afterwards transferred to the county jail.

THE FAIR.

Last evening Memorial hall was crowded with people in attendance at the fair. It was difficult to make any speed in circulating around the hall. The various booths did a good business, while the solicitors in behalf of candidates met with equally as good success. There was a large attendance also during the day.

The following is the vote upon the black-board last night:
Gold-headed cane—Wm. Greiffenstien 25,
H. C. Holberman 31.
Silver-headed cane—G. W. C. Jones 19, J. P. Conly 20.Silk hat—F. Hoffmaster 0, Wm. Myer 67, H. W. Nottmeyer 53, O. R. Stocker 5.
Silver cup—E. Boite 17, C. Zeiminger, Jr., 41.Ladies gold watch—Albertina Bellman 90, Amelia Dissant 90.
Young ladies cloak—D. Snitzler 115, Charlotte Schuler 25.Gold Necklaces—Johannah Laedche 48, Annie Wiegand 22.
Gold Bracelets—Amelia Franke 55, Annie Grild 59.

Tonight will probably close the fair. An effort will be made to continue it until tomorrow night. If it is unsuccessful all of the articles will be raffled off and the voting close. If it is not some of the important contents will be decided.

PROMINENT VISITORS.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Cook, of Manchester, England, arrived in the city yesterday morning. He has two sons engaged in business in Cincinnati, Ohio, and has been visiting and traveling in this country during the past summer.

He is a prominent member of the Christian church and is interested in the welfare of the Garfield university. He attended the national association of the church at Kansas City last week, and hearing so much of Wichita and its power as a commercial city, and that a university supported by his own church had been located here, was not willing to return until he had made the city a visit.

He expresses himself as not being in a hurry but will remain some days and familiarize himself with the city.

MARRIED.

T. P. Martin, the popular young tobacco-ist, was married Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 to Miss Edith Marsh, of Brainerd, Me. After marriage the happy couple left for Kansas City, where they remained for a short time, arriving in the city Thursday evening and are now at home at the residence of Splice Martin, 234 South Main.

Miss Jennie Swartz was married Thursday evening at 8 o'clock to Mr. Thomas Minor, at the residence of the bride's father T. E. Clark, on North Fifth avenue.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

A Democratic meeting was held at the court room last evening. Judge Harle introduced the speaker of the evening, Hon. Thomas George, who delivered himself of the usual Democratic campaign harangue. Some other stereotyped platitudes were run in to fill up the form.

A TAKING SURETY.

The Hon. Rodolph Hatfield will discuss the tariff question at Memorial hall next Saturday night. He will review the late effort of the Hon. J. G. Carlisle in this city on the same question.

Mr. G. Gehring, of the Wichita cracker company, left for St. Louis yesterday morning, where he will remain some days attending to business matters.

MASHED ON HIM.

A prominent gentleman yesterday was out in his carriage taking in the city. He had driven around several hours and his own evidence shows that he noticed more people looking at him than usual. He was free to confess that he was wholly at a loss to determine what had made him such an attractive object all at once. When near the Manhattan Hotel his attention was called to one of the hind wheels of his carriage, which was on a dead lock and had not turned once since he started.

He was soon seen pulling in for repairs while his conversation was decidedly Frenchy in localities.

He admits having noticed that his horse seemed to tire easily and was thinking that he had better make a sale at an early date. This idea caused him to retreat to a back street and make a cursory examination to see if there was any sickness in the family. Everything seemed correct then and he recalled the fact that every one he passed seemed mashed on him. He then examined his collar, coat and shoes, to say nothing of a hunt for soot on his face. All was in shape, although the actual test showed that something was certainly wrong.

RING OFF.

Some days ago an injured husband applied for a divorce, and yesterday the husband and wife met at a lawyers office at the Citizen's bank building. One of the city officials happened to be in the building, and on passing the door of the office was spied by the wife. She immediately called to him and commenced to shower invectives upon him that were almost strong enough to make those present suspect that Mars had turned loose a new battery. Nothing seemed too vile for her enraged highness to refer to. She suspended operations when she got ready. The officer, thinking the matter over decided who had incited him to make the attack. He went down to the Exchange stables and found the person who goes by the name of Dr. Kirkland. The police say they have in store for him some facts that may disclose a sensation at an early date. He was accounted by the officer in strong terms and given a chance to show his grit but it happened to be null. He took his dose with fear and trembling and allowed some of the blackest pages of his biography to be read.

The social given by the Woman's Guild last evening at the residence of Gen. Eggleston on North Lawrence was well attended and was highly enjoyed by all present.

Beside a delightful social time, the following entertaining programme of exercises was presented:

Instrumental Solo.....Mrs. Bond
Vocal Solo.....Miss Sheerwood
Tableau, Gipsy Fortune Teller.
Recitation.....Miss Kanouse
Tableau, Death of Minnehaha......Mrs. Bond and Miss Viole
Recitation, Woman's Rights.....
Tableau, Before and After Marriage.FORTY-EIGHT THOUSAND DOLLARS.
Nearly eight years ago Mr. J. Reiser bought 100 acres of land a short distance southwest of this city. He paid for the same $2,500. Yesterday he sold it to a Kansas City man for $28,000. This is pronounced another average Wichita profit.

The gentleman who made the purchase has an eye to business, and it is thought means to come to the city with another big scheme. That sort of thing is getting so common that it is not appreciated; the people will get scared out of their wits. It is indicated that he intends to make a beautiful park on one part of the land. It is thought that he means to make it the park of the city.

THE THIRD CROP.
Officer Joe Stewart was yesterday exhibiting on the street a branch with five small apples upon it, taken from an apple tree in the orchard of J. Davidson, Goddard. He said they were the third crop of the season; the first and second grew to the size of pigeon eggs and fell off. The tree is bending under the third crop.J. P. ALLEN,
